MBA SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT CONCENTRATION

Additional MBA Program Information (https://bulletin.uakron.edu/graduate/colleges-programs/business-administration/mba-additional-information)

Supply chain management (SCM) is the process of planning, implementing, and controlling the operations of the supply chain as efficiently as possible. The over-all goal of supply chain management is to impact the organization’s bottom line in a positive way while delivering the best services to customers at the lowest possible cost. Supply chain management professional duties may expand beyond the acquisition of materials, services, and equipment into such areas as planning and policy making, motivation, evaluation, product development, and control. Supply chain management careers include working as a buyer, contract negotiator, inventory manager, import/export goods manager, or a logistics manager.

Students with a Supply Chain concentration may not take more than six credits of 500-level courses.
