INTERIOR DESIGN (7300)

7300:518 History of Interior Design I (4 Credits)
The study of furnishings, interiors, and architecture from antiquity through the eighteenth century, with emphasis on the socio-cultural influences shaping their development.

7300:519 History of Interior Design II (4 Credits)
The study of nineteenth and twentieth-century furnishings and interiors, with emphasis on the social-cultural influences shaping their development.

7300:522 Textiles for Interiors (3 Credits)
Prerequisite: Permission from instructor. Evaluation of physical, aesthetic, comfort, care and durability properties of textile products and testing procedures to determine suitability for desired end uses and as it relates to interior fabrics.

7300:585 Seminar in Family & Consumer Sciences (1-3 Credits)
Prerequisite: permission of instructor. Exploration and evaluation of current developments in selected areas.