Equal Education and Employment Institution
The University of Akron is an equal education and employment institution. Pursuant to Ohio Administrative Code Section 3359-38-01(A)(2), it is the policy of this institution that there shall be no unlawful discrimination against any individual in employment or in its programs or activities at the University of Akron because of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, national or ethnic origin, disability, status as a parent during pregnancy and immediately after the birth of a child, status as a parent of a young child, status as a foster parent, military status, genetic information, or status as a veteran. The University of Akron prohibits sexual harassment of any form in all aspects of employment and in its programs and activities and prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual or ethnic orientation in employment and admissions.

This nondiscrimination policy applies to all students, faculty, staff, employees and applicants for employment and applicants for admission to the university and its programs and activities. All judgments about admissions, education and personnel evaluations at the University of Akron will be based on merit, qualifications and performance and not on attributes unrelated to academic or job performance.

Complaints of possible sex and other forms of discrimination should be referred to:

EEO/AA Office

Title IX
To ensure compliance with Title IX and other federal and state civil rights laws, the University has a designated University Title IX Coordinator. The coordinator is charged with monitoring compliance with Title IX and ensuring that reports of sex discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual violence are investigated and addressed by the University.

Any student, faculty or staff member with questions or concerns about the applicable University policies or who believes that he or she has been the victim of sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual violence is encouraged to contact The University of Akron’s Title IX Coordinator.

Services and support for branch campuses are integrated. Students attending classes at branch campuses including The Wayne College and the Medina County University Center are provided the same support and resources as all University of Akron students and are welcome to seek services at whichever location is most convenient.

Misconduct can be reported to the university by filing online (https://www.uakron.edu/title-ix/report/), or by calling UA’s Title IX professionals who are trained to help. You do not need to disclose any personal information.

The University of Akron does not discriminate on the basis of sex as is prohibited by Title IX as well as by the University of Akron Gender Based Misconduct and Title IX Policy and Protocol as well as the University of Akron Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy. The prohibition on discrimination extends to admissions and employment. Information about these policies can be found here (https://www.uakron.edu/title-ix/).

Disclaimer
While every effort is made to provide accurate and up-to-date information, the University reserves the right to change, without notice, statements in the Bulletin series which include, but are not limited to rules, policies, procedures, fees, curricula, courses, programs, activities, services, schedules, course availability, or other matters. For example, programs may be modified due to limited resources or facilities, unavailability of faculty, insufficient enrollment, or other such reasons as the University deems necessary.

Please note that editions of this Undergraduate Bulletin prior to 1994-95 were titled the “General Bulletin.”

The Undergraduate Bulletin is published once each year by the Office of Academic Affairs (https://www.uakron.edu/provost/), Buchtel Hall 102.
