Minor in Anthropology (323000M)

Admission to this program has been suspended

The Minor in Anthropology is designed to provide students with a scholarly appreciation of the global diversity of humanity from the first of our species to ourselves. Coursework includes introductory and advanced courses in biological anthropology, cultural anthropology, archaeology, and related fields. The primary teaching mission of the Department of Anthropology is to graduate students who are well equipped as critical thinkers, readers, and writers ready to participate in our globalizing world.

Requirements for Admission

Admission to The University of Akron. Students in all majors may (and are encouraged to) enroll in the Minor in Anthropology.
