About the Department of History

Students and faculty in the Department of History explore the forces that drove past events and shaped the present. Our faculty members have a wide range of teaching and research interests, from the ancient world to the recent past. We encourage students to design degree programs that enable them to both pursue their own historical interests and obtain a broader understanding of history across time and place.

The department offers nearly a dozen degree programs and certificates. Take a look around our website to learn more about our programs, scholarships, and career opportunities for students of history!
