A knowledge of the Arabic language and culture will offer individuals greater access to careers in fields such as business, diplomacy, journalism, defense, public policy, health care, and more. In careers that involve interaction with native Arabic speakers, knowing Arabic will increase credibility and the ability to build strong relationships. (19 credits required).

The following information has official approval of The Department of Modern Languages and The Buchtel College of Arts & Sciences, but is intended only as a guide. Completion of this minor is contingent upon many factors, including but not limited to: class availability, total number of required credits, work schedule, finances, family, course drops/withdrawals, successfully passing courses, prerequisites, among others.

The following courses constitute a "Minor in Arabic Language and Culture" and must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0 overall for the minor to be noted on the student's record. 12 credits must be at the 300 level or higher. Please refer to the University Requirements for Minor Areas of Study (<https://bulletin.uakron.edu/undergraduate/important-policies/graduation-requirements/#minor-req>) for specific graduation information regarding minors.
