

PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGIONS, MINOR

Minor in Philosophy of Religions (360001M)

The Philosophy of Religions Minor allows students to reflect on their values and beliefs and to seek answers to questions on topics about morality, truth, humanity, and God. Religion permeates many aspects of life, and so the interdisciplinary nature of this program allows students to incorporate designated courses from other disciplines, such as Classics, Anthropology, English, and History, to meet some of the requirements.

The following information has official approval of The Department of Philosophy and The Buchtel College of Arts & Sciences, but is intended only as a guide. Completion of this minor is contingent upon many factors, including but not limited to: class availability, total number of required credits, work schedule, finances, family, course drops/withdrawals, successfully passing courses, prerequisites, among others.

The following courses constitute a "Minor in Philosophy of Religions" and must be completed with a minimum grade point average of 2.0 overall for the minor to be noted on the student's record. Cannot overlap more than 6 credits if obtaining both a Philosophy major and a Philosophy minor or if obtaining two Philosophy minors. Please refer to the University Requirements for Minor Areas of Study (<https://bulletin.uakron.edu/undergraduate/important-policies/graduation-requirements/#minor-req>) for specific graduation information regarding minors.
