

CHILD AND FAMILY DEVELOPMENT, BAFCD

Bachelor of Arts in Child and Family Development (H40108BAT)

Students in the Child and Family Development program complete coursework in human development, diversity issues, family dynamics, ethics, law, and policy, family life education, financial and consumer issues, early childhood programming, and practical and/or research applications. Students are also required to pursue a certificate or minor and complete an internship at an agency that aligns with their career goals, making graduates are competitive in the job market as evidenced by over 90% of students surveyed pursuing careers in their chosen profession.

The following information has official approval of The Department of Social Work and Family Sciences and The College of Health and Human Sciences, but is intended only as a supplemental guide. Official degree requirements are established at the time of transfer and admission to the degree-granting college. Students should refer to the Degree Progress Report (DPR) which is definitive for graduation requirements. Completion of this degree within the identified time frame below is contingent upon many factors, including but not limited to: class availability, total number of required credits, work schedule, finances, family, course drops/withdrawals, successfully passing courses, prerequisites, among others. The transfer process is completed through an appointment with your academic advisor.
